Description

SINGLE BARREL (BRUT DE FÛT)

1930 : first non-stop transatlantic mail service by pilot JeanMermoz, first football worldcup in Uruguay, invention of adhesive tape....

This rare and exceptional Cognac has been patiently aged in oak barrels for decades in our cellars, before being carefully stored in demijohns.

Tasting notes

On the nose, amazing “rancio”, specificity of very old Cognacs, accompanied by strong liquorice notes.

Gourmet palate of candied prunes and dried grapes, followed by a superb length of candied fruits, coffee, and cigar box at the end.

Not Chill Filtered - Natural Colour.
